It is believed the letter was from Mrs. Cole, and that she had gone to Albany to warn Hiscock of her husband's intention to kill him.

William Mitchell and Martin Hanson are two citizens of Chicago, and wealthy. Both were regarded as highly respectable. A few days since Mitchell returned to his home from his business about an hour earlier than usual, and, to his utter sorrow and disgust, found Hanson and his wife in an exceedingly perplexing attitude; whereat he pitched into Hanson and gave him an unmerciful drubbing, for which, under his own confession, he was fined three dollars, which the Justice immediately remitted.

It is rather a notable fact that of the class just graduating at West Point, every man of the first six scholars is from the South. Ruffner, of Virginia, leads, and Sears, of Virginia, is third; then there are Mallory, of Alabama, Rogers and Haupt, of Georgia, and Griffith, of North Carolina. In the next six there are three Tennesseeans, Pitman, Maguire and Bell, while Turtle, of Massachusetts, Greer, of Pennsylvania, and Heintzelman, at large, occupy the other three places. Thus all of the first six, and nine of the first twelve places on the line of general merit, are taken this year by men appointed from the South.

A bloody affray occurred at Natchitoches parish, Louisiana. C. W. Stauffer and John Jones, partners, had a quarrel. Dr. Jones and Judge R. B. Jones threatened to kill Stauffer if he did not leave the place. He was the Radical candidate for the Convention, and it is alleged they wished him out of the way. Last Monday Stauffer was about to have the Jones brothers bound over to keep the peace, when the Judge and Dr. Jones attacked him. John Jones then rode up and with a double barreled gun deliberately killed Stauffer. He then rode to Stauffer's house, called for his wife, and told her that he had killed her husband. He then rode out of town. The Sheriff attempted to arrest the Jones, and was shot in the head and severely injured, and an assistant was shot in the arm. The three Jones are nephews of Governor Wells, and R. B. Jones was appointed to the Supreme Bench of the State during Wells' administration.

LATEST FROM MEXICO.

Court Martial to try Maximilian.

Thrilling Address to His Comrades.

He Denounces Napoleon the Third.

NEW ORLEANS, June 10.—Mexican news to the 22d ult. has been received. Miramon is still dangerously ill from his wounds.

When Maximilian gave up his sword to Escobedo, he said: "I surrender to you my sword, owing to an infamous treason, without which to-morrow's sun would have seen you in my hands."

Escobedo had ordered a court martial on the 27th, on the case of Maximilian. He has sent Diaz a telegram to the Prussian Minister in the City of Mexico, to obtain the service of Moriza Riva Pueblico and the licentiate Mantoza de la Sar to defend him.

The following is an official list of the officers made prisoners at Queretaro: Maximilian, Generals Miramon, Mejia, Castillo, Cassavdra, Hearera, Felecina, Magias, Reis, Warot, Monterde, Calvo, Valdez, Escobel and Rainerez; total, 14. Also, colonels, 19; lieutenant colonels, 15; captains, and brevet lieutenant colonels, 16; majors, 36; captains, 114; lieutenants, 116; second lieutenants, 165. Total, 487.

The following proclamation has been issued:

Countrymen: After the valor and patriotism of the Republican forces have destroyed my scepter in this place, of which a tenacious defense was indispensable to save the honor of my country and of my race; after the bloody siege in which the Imperial and Republican soldiers have excelled in abnegation and boldness. I will explain myself.

Countrymen—I came to Mexico not only animated with the best faith of insuring the felicity of all and each of us, but called and protected by the Emperor of France, Napoleon III. He, to the ridicule of France, abandoned me cowardly and infamously by a demand of the United States, after having uselessly spent forces and treasure and shed the blood of her sons and our own.

When the news of my fall and death reaches Europe all the monarchs of Charlemagne's country will demand of the Napoleonic dynasty an account of my blood—of the German and French blood shed in Mexico. Then will Napoleon be covered with shame from head to foot. To-day he has already seen the Emperor of Austria, my august brother, praying for my life to the United States, and myself a prisoner of war in the hands of the Republican Government, and with my crown and head torn in pieces.

Countrymen, here are my last words. I desire that my blood may regenerate Mexico, and serve as a warning to all ambitious and infamous princes, and that you will act with prudence and truthfulness, and enoble with your virtues the political cause of the flag you sustain. May Providence save you and make you worthy of myself.

[Signed.] MAXIMILIAN.

The following intelligence is received via Havana from Tampico, May 30th:

General Gomez still holds out, having pronounced against Juarez, and in favor of Ortega. On May 13th a portion of the garrison revolted in favor of Juarez, when a fight ensued on the streets, lasting five hours.

The revolted party was finally put to flight. Some of them took refuge on United States men-of-war, and merchant vessels in port, and many were shot while seeking a place of safety.

The forces of Juarez are drawing their lines around this place, and probably there will be a battle soon.

Facts and Fancies from Washington.

Attorney General Stanberry on the Removal Question.

Investigation into the Brownlow Outrages.

Condition of Affairs in New Grenada.

Revolution in Peru.

OMAHA, June 12.—About twenty men have been killed during the past week by Indians, and about two hundred head of stock stolen. Some days ago the Indians attacked simultaneously half a dozen ranches.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—It is understood that the Attorney General is of the opinion that district commanders have no right to remove civil officers without trial by military commission, and then only when they have been found guilty of impeding the enforcement of the Reconstruction act. If this opinion should be adopted by the President Governor Wells and the city officials of New Orleans will be allowed a trial. Prominent Southerners here entertain the hope that this view of the matter may be officially promulgated, but express fears that the President will do nothing in the premises until after the time shall have passed for convening the July session of Congress.

A special says, in the case of alleged outrages committed by Brownlow's militia, instructions have been given to General Thomas to investigate the acts of violence which are said to have been perpetrated. General Whipple has already commenced an investigation.

Senator Patterson returned to-day from Tennessee and reports the political campaign there exceedingly bitter. He fears an outbreak.

The delegation here from Tennessee have been unable to see the President to ask him to interfere with the militia. They wish him to direct General Thomas to send troops to Tennessee to disarm the militia.

Ninety-three suits were commenced yesterday by claimants at Savannah, for cotton alleged to be captured by General Sherman. The claims amount to about $4,000,000 in gold, and the suits are authorized by a recent act of Congress.

NEW YORK, June 12.—President Mosquera, of New Grenada, has declared the country in a state of war, denouncing the majority in Congress as traitors, and imprisoned the President of Curelinemarca and several prominent men. His usurpations have aroused the people against him, and his own adherents in the capital denounce his arbitrary arrests. The Attorney General and two judges of the Supreme Court have resigned.

A revolution has been started in Peru, under Costello, but it is believed that it will soon be suppressed.

MISSISSIPPI ITEMS.

The Hazlehurst Weekly News is a new paper published at that town; Rev. H. J. Harris, editor.

The literary department of the Iuka Mirror is edited by four young ladies.

The Circuit Court is now in session in Amite county, Mississippi, and the negro youth who murdered his father is on trial. Counsel appointed by the court set up the defence that he was deranged.

At Claiborne, Jasper county, the other day, a little son of Mrs. Windham was killed by the accidental discharge of a gun in the hands of a playmate.

Twelve milch cows and four calves were shipped from Louisville, Kentucky, a few days since for the benefit of the Orphans' Home, at Lauderdale. This valuable contribution was from citizens of Fayette county, Kentucky.

The house of Colonel H. B. Shaw, near Natchez, was discovered, the other day, to have been robbed of one thousand dollars in gold, besides valuable jewelry, etc.

The buildings of the Choctaw Manufacturing Company, near Enterprise, have been put under contract, and are to be finished by the first of September.

A meeting was held recently by the citizens of Iuka, Mississippi, to provide for the removal of the Confederate dead within the corporate limits of Iuka, and their interment in a cemetery.

T. L. Jones, of Natchez, has filed a caveat for a patent for a street railroad engine, which he claims will save ninety per cent. of the expense of horse power.

The commutation awarded to all Mississippi Confederate soldiers, who lost legs in the service and have supplied themselves with artificial ones, is seventy-four dollars.

Mr. Vallandigham has declined delivering the commencement address at Oxford. The society orator will be Rev. Dr. Palmer, of New Orleans. Rev. Dr. Somers, of Nashville, will preach the commencement sermon, and the oration before the alumni will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Witherspoon, of Memphis.

A posse of citizens arrested, a few days since, on the premises of Rev. W. B. Johnson, in Jefferson county, nine negro men, all armed to the teeth, who were trying to capture and hang a negro in Captain Thompson's employ.

The Canton Mail complains of a gang of burglars who are now infesting that place. The houses of Colonel Singleton and Mrs. Lawson were both recently entered by them. They were frightened from the premises by Colonel Singleton, but from Mrs. Lawson they stole a valuable gold watch and chain.

On the plantation of Mr. W. C. Turner, of Adams county, Friday week, Colwell Voss, formerly of the 6th colored infantry, was struck by lightning and killed. He had a steel hoe on his shoulder and was conversing with Mr. Turner. His hair was set on fire and Mr. Turner burned his hands in extinquishing it.

The Carrollton Conservative says: Mr. E. Poppy, jr., who has been officiating as postmaster at Vaiden, for the last year or so, was committed to jail at this place on Thursday last, charged with embezzling the postoffice funds to the amount of eight hundred dollars. Mr. Poppy, we understand, is a Northern man, who moved to Vaiden since the surrender.

The cause of the numerous failures among merchants at the South of late, the Hinds county Gazette thinks to be the effort to insure cotton crops. Insurances against worms, bad seasons and low prices were certainly great risks. To this is now added insurance of labor where advances are now made to the large planters.

The Dumas-Menken Cartes.

[From the Cincinnati Commercial.]

We have received from Mr. J. Landy, photographer, of this city, one of the notorious Dumas-Menken cartes de visites, which are still a reigning scandal in Paris. The old novelist sits on the edge of a luxurious arm chair, resting one hand on his knee while the other steals around the waist of the actress, who leans on his bosom obliquely, supported in some degree by a stool between his feet. The fat, mulatto face of Dumas is rippled all over with a "you sly dog" sort of a smile, while his chin and cheeks are oily with triumphant dimples. His head, covered an inch deep with crisp, gray hair, is sunk luxuriantly into his massive chest, his collar (he is in his shirt sleeves) grazes his ears, and buries itself in the stiff curls at the back of his head. If his chest is massive and his legs ponderous, his girth of waist is simply collossal. From head to hip (neck he has none) he looks like a plethoric marine buoy, upholstered in linen and broadcloth. His hand is fat and large, his feet fat and small. The pose of Menken is yielding and unreserved—quite a master piece of tender serenity. The merest glimmer of pensive mischief lurks in her eyes. Otherwise the face is sweetly composed and demure. With one ringed hand she holds a book (perhaps Monte Cristo) loosely on her knee, the other is lost in a loving struggle to reach around the big, round shoulder of her companion. The black cluster of curls that she trains so carefully over her forehead, sweeps his cheek and mingles with the gray spikes of his moustache. She is in ordinary parlor costume. Of itself the picture is not indecent, but unquestionably piquant and suggestive. Dumas, on finding the matter more gossiped about than he expected, ungenerously tried to get legal damages out of the photographer. He failed, and every one who sees the picture will need no stronger evidence that he deserved to fail. Menken's air in the carte is one of pleased and tranquil contentment; but Dumas' is redolent of the aggressive gallantry of a gay old Parisian who is still green and hardy in trunk and branch.

Departure of Three Men Across the Ocean on a Raft.

[From the New York Tribune, June 5.]

The india rubber life saving raft Nonpareil yesterday started on her perilous voyage to Europe. The raft is constructed of three parallel air cylinders, twenty-three feet long and twenty-six inches in diameter, made of india rubber, and pointed at the ends, these being covered with duck canvas. The water casks, twelve in number, are also of rubber, strapped on the side of the raft. These can also be used for life preservers. Her stores consists of biscuit, preserved meats, and fruits, and Lamont's dessicated egg, all of which are placed in tin cans. A chest, six feet long, four feet wide, and twelve inches deep, contain all the stores, on the top of which is a mattress covered by an A tent. As everything is exposed, there being no hold to the craft, it seems impossible to keep anything in its place, but the parties who have undertaken the voyage think that the raft will ride every sea. About half-past five o'clock the anchor was hoisted, and, accompanied by a number of small boats, the Nonpareil proceeded down the bay, and after rounding Governor's Island, disappeared from sight. The party on board consisted of Messrs. Mikes, Miller and Lawson.

A Home for Mr. Davis.

To the People of the South: The Ladies' Davis Association of Mississippi was organized at the capital September 25th, 1866, for the purpose of receiving means for the family of ex-President Davis. SPECIAL NOTICES.

A Young Lady Returning to her Country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In place of a coarse, rustic, flushed face, she had a soft ruby complexion of almost marble smoothness, and instead of twenty-three, she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the Circassian Balm, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying, the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful. THURSDAY, : : : : : : : : JUNE 13, 1867

As faithful sentinel upon the watchtower of Liberty, it is our duty to sound the alarm. We tell the people of Memphis that they are treading on the brink of a volcano, that is liable at any moment to burst forth in the wildest fury. The people of Tennessee have been goaded to despair, and acting from the heaven born inspiration that "resistance to tyranny is obedience to the will of God," they are counseling with each other as to the best means of protecting themselves from despotism, pillage, outrage and murder. We have before us several inflammatory communications, appealing to the people to meet and organize. The usurpation of BROWNLOW'S militia; the atrocious murder of unarmed citizens in Franklin county; the reign of terror in East Tennessee; the riding of innocent men upon a rail in West Tennessee; the indictment of freemen for speaking against BROWNLOW; the driving of men from the stump on account of their remonstrance against the extravagance of the State Government; the effort to array the black man in hostility against the white race—has produced a feeling of bitterness and desperation among the law-abiding Conservative masses which will be difficult to restrain. As evidence of the feeling which pervades this community, we make the following extract from a long and powerful article in the Appeal of yesterday, a paper which is usually conciliatory and moderate in its tone:

All over the State, and especially in the cities the men who have something at stake in the commonwealth, ought to unite and organize at once. The work of enrollment should begin,—at once,—here,—everywhere. As soon as sixty or eighty men are enrolled, let them at once be organized as a company, with all the necessary officers. Let battalions, regiments and brigades be formed. Let us have organization, officers, a military chief. Let every man arm to protect his property, his life, and the lives of those that are dear to him. Let arms and powder and ball be procured, if finery has to be dispensed with. Let this force be a Civic Guard, at the disposition of the officers of the law, where these are fit to be trusted,—to keep the peace in spite of them, where they are not. Let them overawe the turbulent elements that threaten civil convulsions. Such an organization may prevent excesses. Nothing else will. Let them see that every man, white or black, who is entitled to vote by law, has opportunity to vote, AND NO OTHERS, registered or unregistered. If pillagers and assassins undertake to do here what they have done elsewhere, let them be disarmed, and expelled from the city, or die the death. If the authorities of the State, Executive or Judicial, connive at the murder of citizens, let the citizens protect themselves. They can do so, and protect the public peace, and prevent riots or punish rioters; and they must do this, for neither laws, Courts nor police protect them. Are a few ragamuffins and a mob of miscreants to overawe and ride over a whole State?

Let there be no mystery, no secrecy. It is not needed. Let the ranks of the Civic Guard be open to all respectable white citizens. Let the officers elected be known. Require prompt obedience to the signals agreed on. Let the city assist the country and the country the city. Obey the laws as they are, until they are repealed, but resist all unlawful oppression. Every citizen has the right to keep and bear arms for the common defence, and all have the right to organize to maintain order. This will hardly be denied while 'Loyal Leagues' and 'Grand Armies of the Republic' exist. Without organization, thorough and efficient, every good citizen is at the mercy of those who are banded together for the worst purposes and prompted by the worst men. Arm and organize, or hold out your threats to the assassin's knife. The streets may not be safe for butterflies between this and the August elections, unless the citizens prepare to maintain the rights which they do not hold by the sufferance of men but by the gift of God.

Our neighbor speaks warmly on this subject. His language is the spontaneous outburst of a heart that has been goaded to desperation by repeated outrages and the certainty of renewed cruelties; but we cannot concur in his views. In times of such imminent peril—when the lives of innocent men, women and children are involved, it is the duty of the public press to counsel moderation. If the Conservative party organize in the way and manner proposed by the Appeal, a riot will occur just as certain as the day of election arrives. The evils of which the Conservatives complain are indeed grievous; but there are still greater evils, and the policy advocated by the Appeal will bring them upon us in all their appalling horror. It is true the approaching election will be a swindle and mockery. Frauds will be perpetrated. Hundreds of negroes, not entitled to vote, have been registered. Negroes only seventeen years of age are displaying their certificates on the streets. Negroes from Arkansas and Mississippi have been registered. Negroes are given certificates in large squads and in a few minutes, while it is with the greatest difficulty a single white man can procure a registration at all. A regular tally is kept of the probable political complexion of voters, and even if the Conservatives had three thousand majority upon an honest registration, the Radicals will overcome this majority, by the means they have already provided for. White men will be jostled from the polls by a mob of negroes. We know it will be difficult for our people to restrain their resentment for the many insults and outrages that will be perpetrated, but it is their duty to work and to wait. In the present condition of affairs in Tennessee, no active remedies can much avail. Within the limits of our comprehension there is no expedient by which our conquered fellow citizens can compel their conquerors to be just or to be true to the principles of equality and justice. If the spirit of our nationality is not strong enough to preserve its fundamental laws, the weak have no alternative but to submit to the injustice of the powerful. The best that they can do is to submit with dignity and patience, and to make the burdens of their oppression as light as possible.

The power of endurance is now the quality of most value to the Southern people. But let them not suppose that, in remaining passive under the infliction of injury and insult, they forfeit any of their claims to honorable manhood. As all appeals to reason and justice have been proven ineffectual, and as resistance by other than moral agencies is out of the question, their most manly and honorable course is calm and silent endurance while waiting the decisive action of the change in popular sentiment that will ultimately give them their proper position. There is no help for it; the Southern people must wait till the already ebbing waters of fanaticism have receded and given them a foothold upon the firm ground of the Constitution. It is hard to have to confess impotence in the presence of arrogance and despotism, but it need not be humiliating, and certainly, under the circumstances, it is not dishonorable. The courage of the Southern people has received sufficient attestation; none presume to dispute it. Their devotion to the principles that they have been taught to look upon as righteous has been well established. But what can valor or what can constancy accomplish, when the hands are manacled and the feet shackled, so that both resistance and refuge are impossible? In such a case, to fold the arms and silently bide the hour of deliverance is the best that the bravest and the wisest can do; inviting no disputation that is sure to be ineffectual in their behalf; offering no provocation to insult; leaving no excuse for injury, but watching closely every sign in the political atmosphere, and remaining ready to act when the time for action comes. But while we advise this course, we can with truth say that there is one thing our people will not submit to. The Radicals have nearly succeeded in arraying the colored race against the white. Many of them are becoming overbearing, domineering and insolent. Impressed with the belief that they are backed by the Federal army and the militia of the State, they may attempt, on the day of the election, if not before, personal violence upon the whites. Such an event would be the spark to fire the magazine—the spear to penetrate the thin crust which separates our community from the slumbering volcano. GOD forbid that the negro should resort to violence. But if he does let there be a just and fearful retribution; but let it be visited upon the guilty heads of the white knaves who have deceived the negro. The teachings of the Radical adventurer—the debased outcast of Northern society—have produced a harvest of passion among the negroes, and if this bad blood culminates in outrage and violence the negro should be spared, but the Radical mischief maker will reap the harvest he has sowed. These bad men have made a concentrated effort in their churches, in their school rooms, in their secret societies, to stimulate the negro to lawless violence—they have labored to make the negro hate the Southern white man—to despise the employer whose house he occupies, and whose wages he accepts—to covet his possessions, and to conspire against him in secret conclave at the hour of midnight, and for this atrocious wickedness these scoundrels should be treated as enemies to mankind. They are a curse to society, a bane to peace and prosperity. Men who infuse into the minds of the black a spirit of hatred for the whites, are cruel to the negro and guilty of a great crime. But for the intermeddling impudence of Yankee fanaticism there would not be in our midst the "Black man's party" and the "White man's party." The feelings of the white race are of the kindest character towards their late slaves, and this feeling would be reciprocated but for the poison which has been instilled into their minds by nosing adventurers, who hope to retain office by creating strife and discord. But for the teachings of designing knaves and mercenary rascals, the negro would never meet in the dark to conspire against his employer, or to array himself in a causeless hostility towards the white race of the South. The negro must necessarily live in daily contact with his late master. Their interests are reciprocal, and he who attempts to sow the seeds of alienation, distrust and enmity is an enemy to mankind. None but a puling, thieving, whining Radical would attempt such wickedness; and we repeat, if the deluded negro commits any outrage upon his friends, let the retribution be visited upon those who, for vile, selfish purposes, have made the negro strike down his benefactors.

WE are pleased to learn of the nomination by the Conservative party of the Senatorial District of Hardeman, Hardin and McNairy of HUGH KIRBY, Esq., of McNairy, as the candidate for the Senate, against that infamous wretch, JOHN ALDRIDGE. Mr. KIRBY is said to have been the first white child born within the limits of McNairy since its county organization. He is deservedly popular, and is said to be the strongest man that could have been put in the contest. We trust our friends will, by earnest effort and unflinching exertion, relieve the Senate of the disgrace of the present incumbent, ALDRIDGE.

Frank Morton, a soldier of the Forty-fifth Infantry, was shot in Chattanooga before daylight on Friday morning, by a negro. Morton was making the rounds with the officer of the day on duty, and, having stopped to quell some disturbance in which the negro was concerned, the latter fired at him as he turned to leave. The wound is supposed to be fatal.

A portion of the Republican party, says the New Orleans Times, claim full right and title to General Longstreet. Since the publication of his letter to Mr. Parker, the more enthusiastic have, on several occasions, spoken of him as a very suitable candidate for the position of United States Senator, and there seems to be little doubt among them that full pardon and amnesty will be granted him by Congress immediately upon convening another session. The wishes of the General do not seem to have been consulted.

An awful tragedy occurred in New York on Sunday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Alfred King, residing at No. 30 East Nineteenth street, retired to their sleeping apartment. As they did not make their appearance next morning, the servant proceeded to the room and beheld the husband and wife lying dead on the bed, which was covered with blood. A pistol was found on the bed, three chambers of which had been discharged. The supposition is that King first shot his wife, having previously given her chloroform, and then killed himself.

THE ANDERSONVILLE LEAGUE.

Jefferson Davis to be Killed if Found on United States Soil.

A Washington correspondent of the Erie (Pa.) Dispatch writes as follows, which he says he can testify to:

When it was found that Davis was to go on bail, a matter which every one there looks upon as a virtual discharge, the excitement among the veteran soldiers knew no bounds. The result had been published days before, and, half expecting it, a meeting was privately called, at which some sixty discharged soldiers were present, who bound themselves sacredly together under the name of the "Andersonville League," every member subscribing to a solemn oath that if justice failed in its duty they would take justice in their own hands.

This brotherhood no man was qualified to enter but those who had suffered either from wounds or imprisonment in the rebel pens during the war. It now extends to New York, Philadelphia and Boston. While the bail was being arranged by the court at Richmond on the day set for the trial, a paper was handed in to Davis' counsel, Charles O'Conor of New York, warning him of the existence of such league, and naming two men in the courtroom as members.

These men were seized as soon as they left the room, on a mock charge, and taken to jail, and were not released until a week after, when Davis was in New York. It will be remembered that Davis arrived in New York during the night; that he kept secluded as much as possible while at the New York Hotel, no one being admitted but those who were personally known to some one of the party; that he was suddenly removed one night from the hotel to Brooklyn, where he remained until his departure; that he left New York alone and in disguise for Montreal, his party and family following only when he had telegraphed them of his safe arrival. When it is understood that the brotherhood were upon his track, and that he was conscious of it, this strange conduct is easily accounted for. According to the oath, as long as he remains on foreign ground he is safe, so it is hardly probable that he will again set foot upon the soil of the United States, at least not until he feels easier in his mind than at present.

The case of the State against James B. Ferguson, charged with the murder of Convers, has been transferred to Lauderdale county for trial at July term—it being impossible to obtain a jury in Dyer county.

Stokes all Over Stokes.

In 1865 when the honorable Mr. Stokes was running for Congress in the Chattanooga district against J. R. Hood, he declared himself bitterly opposed to negro suffrage. While making a speech, in the Baptist chapel, Chattanooga, July 28 1875, Stokes, Brownlow's lap dog, and Etheridge's whittle block, used these identical words, as can be proven by over 500 persons:

"Fellow citizens: Just think of the idee of a big buck niggah, with toes spraddled out like gig prongs, with cracks in his heels that you could put a bolt of caliker in, coming up and swaaring away the lives of the loyal white people of East Tennessee.

"Fellow citizens: The thing is too awful to contemplate. I am opposed to the niggahs swaaring and voting.

"Hood is the Daddy of niggah equality in Tennessee. Look at him! Don't you see the wool on his teeth."

MARRIED.

At the First Presbyterian Church, on the 12th instant, at 1½ o'clock p.m., by the Rev. J. O. Steadman, D. D., Mr. JOHN R. LEECH to Miss BELLE, fourth daughter of Mr. James Elder, President of the Desoto Bank, all of Memphis.

Thus do we chronicle, one by one, the fall of our bachelor friends at the altar of Hymen into the ranks of the Benedicts; and we congratulate our friend Leech upon his good fortune in having secured to himself so amiable a partner to smooth and brighten the rough places in life's journey.

May they be as happy as they both so richly deserve, and may no cloud appear in their horizon which the sun of their mutual love cannot pierce and dispel. B.

In this city, last evening, 12th inst., by Rev. Dr. Ford, Mr. ROBERT W. BRADFORD to Miss NICOLETTA VACARRO, daughter of Mr. Anthony Vacarro—all of this city.

The young couple have launched their bark upon the stream of life, with bright hopes and loving hearts. May the dreams and fancies which fill their minds for the future be realized in all their beauty, unclouded by a single sorrow; and may the star which they have chosen to be their home, when their "loves become immortal," be reached after many summers of roses have greeted them on the way—after the hand of time has touched their now youthful locks with its silvery tinge. L.

OBITUARY.

We are called upon to perform the sad duty of announcing the demise of Mr. LEVY KETCHUM, an honest and worthy citizen of Fayette county, in this State. The painful event occurred on Sunday morning last at the Overton Hotel, where, surrounded by kind hearted and grief stricken friends, he breathed his last, in the sixty-ninth year of his age.

Mr. KETCHUM came to this city a few days ago, hoping to obtain relief from the effects of paralysis, with which he had been afflicted for some time past. Instead of deriving benefit from the treatment he engaged, he grew rapidly worse, and expired after an illness of two days, much to the regret of a wide circle of friends and acquaintances.

Death is at all times a solemn and unwelcome visitor, but when he selects as a victim one who is universally beloved and respected, as was the subject of this sketch, he is especially so. Born in Maury county, Tenn., Mr. KETCHUM removed to Fayette at an early day. By industry, frugality and perseverance he amassed a handsome fortune. By hospitality, kindness and liberality towards all with whom he was acquainted, his name became a synonym for honesty and uprightness, and his memory will long be held fresh and dear by those who knew him. Though now buried beneath the cold earth, where the green grass will soon grow above his mortal form, the blue celestial vault of heaven will never bend above his immortal spirit.

The Buntyn HOMESTEAD LANDS FOR SALE.

WE have the pleasure of placing on the market those very desirable and valuable lands, so well known to the community as the Homestead Tract of the late Geraldus Buntyn, Esq., situated at the first station on the Memphis and Charleston railroad, five miles east of the city. The improvements, with about twenty acres of land, have been recently sold to Hume F. Hill, Esq., who now resides upon the premises. The balance of the tract, consisting of about 400 acres, has been laid off in lots varying in size from five to ten acres, fronting upon broad avenues, and laid off so as to secure the greatest amount of comfort. The trains of the Memphis and Charleston railroad afford the opportunity of going in and out of the city, from and to Buntyn's Station, four times a day, so as to make a residence at this point almost as convenient as to live in the city itself.

The choice can now be had of lots wholly or part in original forest, or in field.

IN EXCHANGE FOR CITY PROPERTY.

The executors are directed by the will to sell this place and invest in city property, and we will receive propositions to exchange for choice improved or vacant lots in the city.

To speculators or persons wanting homes, we do not think any property more desirable can be found in regard to health, convenience or good neighborhood, within the same distance from the city.

The terms will be made very liberal and easy, and the prices low to parties desirous of buying for homes.

Plans of the subdivision will be shown at our office. ma8-tf HOUSTON, TERREVANT & CO.

LYON'S PERIODICAL DROPS! THE GREAT Female Remedy for Irregularities

I HAVE tested these Drops in my own practice over ten years, and do not hesitate to say that nothing has yet been developed by medical research that acts so powerfully, positively and harmlessly, in cases of female irregularity, as does this medicine. In all recent cases it never fails, while thousands, who have been long sufferers, are indebted to it for the boon of health to-day.

Although so powerful and positive, they are perfectly harmless, and may be used at all times, except when specially forbidden in the directions.

They have been extensively employed by eminent physicians in France and England, as well as by my own practice over ten years, and I have yet to hear of the first instance of failure. I could give you testimonials of their efficacy from ladies all over the United States, whose names, were they to be made public, would guarantee their success, but they have been received in confidence. I am well aware that a remedy so powerful is liable to be misused, [illegible] the hands of really needy sufferers.

To all who suffer from any irregularity; painful, difficult, excessive, or obstructed menstruation, [illegible] the train of diseases that follow, I would say, try a bottle of DR. LYON'S FRENCH PERIODICAL DROPS. Being a fluid preparation, their action is more direct and positive than any pills or powders. Explicit directions, bearing my fac simile, accompany each bottle.

They may be obtained of nearly every druggist in the country, or by inclosing the price to C. G. CLARK & CO., New Haven, Ct., General Agents for the United States and Canada.

The Odd Fellows' Picnic.—The annual basket picnic of the Odd Fellows of Memphis comes off to-day, and will be a well got up and pleasant festival. It usually has a more social character than any other picnic of the season, and we presume that the present will have the same admirable features as its predecessors. The place selected for the fete is exceedingly beautiful and conveniently accessible, just so far removed from the noise and bustle of the city to give one a taste of rural enjoyment, but not so far as to be difficult to reach. No finer place could be selected than Buntyn's station, and we know that every arrangement will be made to guarantee the success of the picnic.

Look at the Ruins!—Aye, look at the ruins of what were once magnificent sets of teeth, to be seen everywhere in society. Look at them, and ask yourself if it is not marvelous that such destruction is permitted, when, by simply using Sozodont, any teeth, however fragile, may be preserved from decay and blemish as long as life lasts? sodlw

I. O. O. F.—Odd Fellows and friends of the order who wish to attend the picnic to-day, and have not supplied themselves yet with tickets, can procure them at any time during to-day at the depot of the Memphis and Charleston railroad. A special train will leave the depot at eight and a half o'clock a.m.

The Doings in Lincoln Council.

Some of the Thugs affect to be amused and he-he over what they want people to suppose are mistakes in our report of the proceedings of their dark lantern den. They say the blunders are "so comic," and "it's better than a circus." Well, if the blunders are so funny, how about the facts? They want the public to suppose that there were no facts. If there was such immense "merriment among those acquainted with the real proceedings" at trifling errors, to which any story is liable in transmission, how they must have grinned at the exposures of the knavish projects, the corrupt tricks and the bickerings of this gang whose only merit is the admiration of loyalty.

They want the public to suppose that there is no den of corrupt tricksters, no Hunter and Eaton factions, no villainous plans to corrupt the ballot box. Their affectation of being amused at exposures; their intense satisfaction at the discovery that the fracas in Lincoln Council didn't last quite as long as was said, or that some mistake was made in other equally unimportant details, only shows that conscious of the villainy that might be brought to light, they dare not either tell what blunders were so comic, nor specifically deny the main features of the expose given in the Avalanche. They dare not deny that charges are preferred by the Hunter faction against Barbour Lewis, Mr. D. being the nominal accuser. They dare not deny that to sustain the two general charges and specifications, there were circulated in and out of the council allegations, that may or may not have been true, against the personal and public character of Barbour Lewis, who was charged with being the meanest man of the mean faction with which he colleagued. They dare not deny that the attempt to expose the scoundrelism of Eaton by the Hunter men was frustrated at the recent public meeting by the demagogue acts of the Eaton-Lewis faction. They dare not deny that the trial of Barbour Lewis occupied most of the time of Lincoln Council on last Monday night. They dare not deny that Hunter was beaten when he wished the rule to prevent any body leaving before the meeting broke up to be put in force. They dare not deny that Dr. White's motion to adjourn so as to allow Hunter to speak on some other night against Lewis was voted down. They dare not tell what was said in the council on two occasions about colored people from Arkansas getting certificates and voting. The admission of members of each faction verify all that has been said of the doings in Lincoln Council, and this affected giggle of the Eaton faction is simply a dodge.

A Matter of Importance to All.—Why will our Memphis merchants not bestir themselves against the discrimination which St. Louis makes in the shipment of freights from that port? The papers of that city daily and boldly publish in their commercial columns that the same class of freights are shipped to New Orleans and Vicksburg for twenty, thirty and forty cents, by steamboat, which, when consigned to this city, cost twenty-five, thirty-five, forty, fifty and sixty cents. This is an outrage which our merchants can and ought to resent; and the way to do it is to establish the barge line, which competent men have been trying to organize for weeks.

Another Fact for Radicals to Laugh at.—The Radical faction that controls the Radical organ of this city, affects to regard as exceedingly "comic" the exposures of Lincoln Council, and as they evidently appreciate fun, we direct their attention to a circumstance that happened to one of their number, whose name will be given if they desire it. He was walking down Union street yesterday with a respectable white young lady, and was talking very sweet to her, when suddenly he was interrupted by the discordant reproaches of a stout, greasy looking colored female, who was evidently in a great rage. The Radical tried a bold dodge. Said he "you're mistaken in the man." "No, I ain't neither," said Ebony. "you can't come walking past and pretending not to know me. Ain't you Mr. ——? Hain't I got your picture dat you gib me? And now you come roun wid white trash, an let on you dont know me." The colored female was evidently desperately jealous, and was proceeding to tell how intimate they had been, and how bad it was for him to go with white trash, when the chivalrous Radical raised his stick and struck at her. His white companion gave a little scream. The negress dodged the blow, and, running into a house, closed the door. Some Thugs intimate that we are good at guessing; but we can't guess whether this fracas, between a Radical and his colored dulcinea, has since been harmonized.

The Bartlett Entertainment.—Bartlett is a beautiful little station on the Memphis and Ohio railroad. Its people are distinguished for cultivation, refined taste, social kindness, benevolence and general respectability. They propose to have, on next Friday evening, in the Masonic hall of their village, a social entertainment for the benefit of the churches of Bartlett, and we hope it will be liberally patronized. It will be gotten up and managed in good taste, and will be a delightful festival. A train will go out from Memphis early in the evening and return at night when the festival is over, thus affording a fine chance for citizens to enjoy a suburban entertainment.

More Soldiers at Brownsville.—A full company of United States soldiers were yesterday evening taken out to Brownsville, to be stationed there for the protection of the citizens. The outrages committed by Brownlow's militia, and the effrontery of their officers in threatening to lynch those who offend them, and avowing their having done so, has probably convinced the Federal authorities that the representations of the people of Haywood county are entitled to consideration. The presence of Federal soldiers in Brownsville will be gratifying to the people; and if they are as quiet, orderly and well behaved as the Federal soldiers who were at Brownsville a few weeks ago, they will have the good will of all. When the former company of United States soldiers was in Brownsville, one of its members saw a militia soldier making free with the chickens of a citizen. "Don't your officers stop such things?" queried the Federal soldier. "What the —— could they do?" replied the militiaman. "Well," said the Federal, "if you had officers who knew their business as ours do, you would be afraid to kill a louse contrary to orders, not to speak of a chicken at all."

A First Class City Institution.—No two photograph galleries in Memphis have had a higher artistic reputation than the Bingham gallery, on the corner of Main and Adams streets, and the gallery in the Marble Block, corner of Main and Madison streets. The former was recently rubbed out by fire, and its enterprising proprietor, B. Bingham, Esq., has now made arrangements to carry on the gallery in the Marble building, over Clark's jewelry store. Mr. Bingham is an accomplished artist. He has the fine taste to place his subjects in the most favorable positions and best light, and he has the ability to make pictures that can't be surpassed in sharpness of relief, clearness, depth and finish. His photographs need no touching to make them first rate. In his hands the Marble Building Gallery will win new laurels for faithful portraitures of youth and beauty and manhood. We know Mr. Bingham to be a most accomplished photographer, and we wish him that abundant patronage which he well deserves.

The sale of tickets at Hernando, through the Memphis agency of the Southern Asylum, will be closed to-morrow evening. There are no sensational or clap trap "grand prizes"—nothing besides that sort of property which the masses of ticket purchasers want. Call at the Agency and see the list of prizes. Drawings will occur regularly, and the same simple, straightforward course will be pursued. This first drawing will illustrate the policy and mode of operation of the institution.

Second National Bank of St. Louis.—A gentlemen who is well informed relative to financial matters, and who is every way reliable, writes to state that the stories afloat derogatory to the Second National Bank of St. Louis, are false in every particular, and were started without any foundation. The Second National Bank of St. Louis is as safe and reliable an institution as there is in the country. Its officers are widely known gentlemen of large banking experience and a high reputation for probity, and it is a matter of regret that personal malice or unfounded suspicion should at this time of general financial distrust further and stimulate that want of confidence which is fatal to trade.

Special Train.—A special train on the Memphis and Ohio railroad leaves at six and a half o'clock p.m. next Friday for the rural entertainment at Bartlett, and returns at the close of the entertainment. All are invited. Plenty to eat at all hours. Excursion train fare only one way.

ITEMLETS.

The storm on Tuesday blew trees across the tracks of several of our railroads.

John Ryan is under arrest for stealing $150 from Black, Harrison & Co., on Front street.

A mackerel named Kingsley was arrested for stealing a goat from Mrs. Franks, on Linden street.

Ed. Potts was arrested for stealing a pair of boots from Henry Willis, on Hernando street.

Mike Knick was arrested for stealing clothing from Mrs. Harwood, on Beale street.

Jack Graham accidentally shot himself in the hand yesterday.

John Newton is charged with stealing jewelry from Mrs. Barker.

Pat. Flynn was drowned in Wolf river yesterday while bathing.

Reuben Dailey says he is now determined to be Wharfmaster if he can.

The atrocious condition of many alleys and back yards justifies the inquiry what the sanitary squad are doing to earn their salaries?

The Pride of the South and Jackson Base Ball Clubs played a match yesterday, and the Jacksons were defeated.

Henry Rodgers, colored, was yesterday held to answer for stealing groceries from Mr. Lytle, on Poplar street.

Lucinda Lee, colored, is held under two hundred dollars bonds to answer for stealing clothing and jewelry from H. N. Hart.

The house of Mr. Day, on Fourth street, near Poplar, was entered by burglars on Tuesday night and robbed of $25 worth of money and clothing.

A gentleman who has recently traveled extensively in Mississippi reports that corn and cotton now promise well.

A small fire occurred on Monday night at the house of Mr. Bean, on Alabama street. Damage trifling.

The Eagle and Confederate Base Ball Clubs played a friendly match on Tuesday, and at the close of the game the score was, Eagle, 27; Confederate, 30.

Ed. Forrest, a colored man, was stabbed in an affray on the wharf with Henry Bascom. The wound was not severe, and both of them were arrested.

The quarrels of a lot of beer jerking demireps occupied 'Squire Creighton's Court for four hours yesterday. Every one of the bleary, brazen, foul mouthed hussies should be in a workhouse.

Bill Hyde is under arrest for stealing a box of oranges from Mr. Parks, on Madison street, and Mike Lambert for stealing cotton from the shed of March & Herring, on Poplar street.

The sum of $18,359 40 was paid over to the County Trustee yesterday in county warrants. This is the only currency that has come into his hands for a long time.

As our guessing on facts amuses the Radicals, we will guess that Brownlow's last envoy to this city lay for four hours, yesterday, in Monsarrat's cellar in a beastly state of intoxication.

A suit was begun yesterday against two doctors who, it is alleged, tried to cure rheumatism by pulling the plaintiff's arms until they broke one of the tendons, since which time the arm can't be used at all. Heavy damages are claimed.

The St. George and Chelsea Cricket Clubs will to-day play a grand match at the ground of the St. George. It is, we understand, the first regular cricket match played here, and attracts, considerable interest.

A good many colored people having discovered that little General Smith voted for that law which was to reduce free blacks to involuntary servitude, now say they are mighty glad he didn't get the nomination for Congress as they first desired.

Having investigated the matter, we, in justice to all parties, state that it was not the County Hospital from which the unfortunate woman was discharged to wander about homeless until her child died. In other respects, the statement was correct.

Several prominent owners of property on Main street, who have heretofore been much opposed to paving, are now circulating a petition urging the prompt putting down down of the Nicolson pavement on Main street. Their petition meets with general favor from Main street men.

Complaint is made that very great loss is occasioned by the manner in which the excavations to put in gas pipes are filled up. When the filled in earth settles there is a hollow that becomes a mud hole. There should be an ordinance to require the puddling with water, so as to secure settling at once.

'Squire Creighton held an inquest yesterday upon the body of a middle aged woman, named Caroline Webber, who has been for some time a miserable wanderer. The jury, after fully investigating the case, found a verdict that she came to her death from exposure and the excessive use of opium.

There was some excitement in fashionable circles, yesterday, over the marriage of John Leach, Esq., and Miss Belle Elder, a daughter of James Elder, the distinguished banker. The bridal party were married in Calvary Church, and went northward by the Memphis and Ohio railroad yesterday evening.

We understand that Dr. O. B. Knode performed successfully a very rare and difficult feat in surgery, a few days since. The jaw bone of the wife of an ex-Confederate soldier becoming diseased, Dr. Knode sawed it asunder at the chin, and then disarticulating the side that was diseased, removed it wholly.

The Radical organs tried to shift some portion of the blame of stealing the school fund from themselves by representing that Sanford was a Conservative. We have positive proof that Sanford was a member of the Loyal League at Nashville. We think it not unlikely that stealing the school fund was first suggested in that Loyal League to which Wines and Arnell and others who subsequently pocketed the school fund money belonged also.

About one o'clock yesterday morning a burglar attempted to enter the little cigar and tobacco store of Eugene Galliliat, No. 243 Main street. The shutter of the door was down, and the thief, in the act of unlocking it by nippers, was seen by Mr. Galliliat, who fired a revolver. The ball struck the door and lodged, but a fragment of the glass must have struck the burglar, as he screamed loudly, and blood was found on the outside of the door. Mr. Galliliat waited some time, and then gave the alarm, but the thief was gone.

The election that is to come off on Saturday, to determine whether the people will authorize the issue of bonds to pave our streets, is of more importance than is generally supposed. The work is to be done at cash prices, and the city will lose the difference between cash and scrip. This will be perhaps fifty per cent. advantage to property holders, who now use scrip to pay up their paving assessments. Nothing more judicious than this project to issue bonds to pave the streets could readily be suggested, and it is to be hope that interest will be taken in the election.

A Nice Member of the Lincoln Council.—The recent nomination at Washington of John C. Feebles, one of that precious set of scamps who give Lincoln Council its peculiar character, for the very responsible position of Register of Bankruptcies, reveals the fact that this is the Feebles who was the prosecutor, in military times, of a man charged with murder, and when the findings of the court martial that tried him were overruled, and the proceedings returned with an order for his discharge, this Feebles told Mr. Robinson, the attorney for the prisoner, that the finding of the court martial was sustained and the proceedings approved, and that the prisoner would be hung or sent to State prison, if not released by his (Feebles') influence. Feebles is alleged to have got two thousand dollars upon these false pretenses. A grand jury had the case before it, but were so loyal that they wouldn't indict for what seemed a semi-military offense. The proofs substantiating the main points of the allegation that Feebles got one thousand dollars in cash and one thousand dollars in notes, from a party whom military authority had ordered to be discharged, will be corroborated by what Attorney General Wallace, Mr. Robinson, General John E. Smith and General W. H. Morgan know of the case. No wonder Lincoln Council was prematurely glad at the nomination of its worthy member.

Floral Festival of Memphis Ladies' Institute.—The floral festival at Greenlaw Hall last night was in every respect a great success. The audience was large and of the highest respectability. The performances—singing, dialogues and floral personations—were tasteful and were loudly applauded. The whole affair reflected great credit on the pupils of Mesdames Southworth and McGehee, and showed the admirable musical training to which their pupils have been subjected. We regret that our want of space compels us to omit a detailed report of this delightful floral festival.

Clothing Almost Given Away.—The great auction sale of clothing and piece goods by Reid & Brothers, at No. 15½ Jefferson street, every afternoon, affords rare chances for bargains. Their stock is very large, is of fine quality and will be sold low. Those who want clothing will find no better chance than this to buy.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Business on the wharf yesterday was fair, with a small list of arrivals and departures. A large amount of frieght for New Orleans, including 7,000 sacks of corn, has accumulated here during the past few days, awaiting shipment south. The Quitman was unable to take half the freight that was engaged for her. Send down some of your laid up packets from Louisville, Charley.

Our gallant friend, Mr. James Tyman, of the Paducah Herald, has again made his bow to his river friends, accompanied by a pathetic appeal. We hope that his labors will be crowned with success.

The Lady Gay, for St. Louis, and P. W. Strader, for Louisville, passed up yesterday morning.

The Clifton, Captain Stein, arrived yesterday from Cincinnati, with a miscellaneous cargo. She returns to Cincinnati on Saturday at five p.m.

The Ruth, Captain Jack Carter, will leave the City wharf-boat to-day at five p.m. for New Orleans.

The Rubicon, Captain Blake, will leave the City wharf-boat this morning at ten o'clock a.m. for St. Louis.

The fine steamer M. S. Mepham, Captain E. Woods, will leave the Star wharf-boat on Friday morning at eight a.m. for New Orleans.

The staunch steamer Lady, Captain Ward, is the regular semi-weekly St. Francis river packet. She leaves the wharf to-morrow at five p.m. for Mariania.

The Celeste, Captain Reese Pritchard, has her bills up for Little Rock, and will probably get off to-day.

The Cincinnati Commercial of Tuesday has the following:

The Anglo Saxon, from Arkansas river, has laid up for the present. The Silver Moon goes out on a picnic excursion on Thursday, after which she will lay up, the Golden Eagle taking her place in the Memphis trade. The Argosy leaves for New Orleans this evening.

The steamer Forest City was burned at Savannah, Georgia, on the morning of the 10th, and is a total loss.

The Nick Longworth has laid up at Louisville, to be repainted and refitted.

The steamers Clara Dolson and Julia have gone on the docks at St. Louis, where they will be put in order for the fall trade.

The regular Friday Cairo and Evansville packet John D. Perry, in command of Captain Lee Finny, will be found at the wharf to-day, from Evansville, with a cargo of miscellaneous freight. She returns to Evansville to-morrow at five p.m.

The excellent and swift going steamer Cora S., Captain Menken, arrived yesterday morning from Louisville, with a cargo of produce. She returns to Louisville on Friday, at five p.m. Mr. Croxall is her purser.

The fine steamer Rose Hambleton has been put in complete order, and will enter the White river trade for the present as a regular Saturday weekly packet, taking the DesArc's days. Capt. John D. Elliott takes command of her and will bring her to the wharf to-day to receive freight, and leaves on Saturday.

The Darling cleared last evening for Cincinnati, with a full passenger list, and 450 bales of cotton.

The Belle St. Louis, Captain Zeigler, arrived from St. Louis last evening, with a fair trip. She returns to Cairo and St. Louis to-day, at five p.m.

The General Quitman extended her trip to Paducah, where she received 225 hhds tobacco. She arrived here yesterday with the bulk of her cargo, and added to her freight list here a large lot of bagging, some cotton and miscellaneous freight, and cleared for New Orleans, at seven p.m., with a splendid trip.

Captain John Elliott, of the steamer DesArc, returned from Cairo yesterday. The DesArc, at that point, has been docked and made staunch, and is now receiving a new dress of paint. She will be ready to resume her trips in the White river trade in two weeks.

St. Louis exchanges of Tuesday say as follows:

The heat of the weather gave way to a soaking rain and cool atmosphere at four o'clock yesterday afternoon. The decline in the river continues here and to Cairo, with good twenty feet of water in the channel. Rates to New Orleans and Vicksburg same as on Saturday. To New Orleans—pork, 90c; flour, 60c; corn, 35c; oats, 45c; freight, 30 to 75c. Vicksburg freight, less than to New Orleans, 10c per barrel, 5c per sack and 5c per cwt. To other points we believe rates were left open. The Sam Gaty is loading for Vicksburg, and the Ruth and the barge line for New Orleans. S. C. Stanard, a lumberman, bought the little steamer C. N. Shelton, about three weeks ago for, it is stated, the sum of four thousand dollars. She is lying at Bissell's Point, being fixed up, and will probably be put into one of the Southern bayous, for which she is well adapted. She is 120 feet long by 22 feet beam, has a half cabin, and cylinders 14 inches in diameter, with four feet stroke. A letter from Captain Bryan to Agent Driller, dated Sioux City, June 2, says; "We arrived here with the Evening Star to-day, and proceed upward in an hour. The Lexington is in port. Paragon passed up yesterday; the Silver Lake three days ago, and the Imperial will be up to-morrow. The river is in an awful condition and falling fast. We found four and a half feet scant above Omaha, and wished we had stayed below even at fifty cents to Omaha and pay agencies. Wood has been all overflowed, and the price is from six to seven dollars. Parties on the St. Johns have written back here from Berthold, that not over one out of ten boats will be able to reach Benton, and at last accounts from Swan Lake bar, eight boats were there aground."

The Louisville Courier, of Tuesday, says: "The river was falling rather slowly yesterday, with seven feet two inches water in the canal by the mark. Boats in port—Portland—Tarascon, Indiana, Longworth, St. Charles, Richmond; City Wharf—Mollie Gratz, Norman, Tempest, Pink Varble, Alice, Vivian. The Norman is at the city wharf, receiving the material for the great iron bridge at Grand Gulf, Mississippi. It is in sections and pieces; aggregating 180 tons, all taken at eighty cents per 100 pounds. The J. W. Garrett, a large towing craft, came in yesterday, three days out from Cincinnati. She is going down South with the tide, and may reach the Balize by the 4th of July.

THE HICKS STEAM ENGINE

MANUFACTURED BY THE

HICKS STEAM ENGINE COMPANY,

OF DELAWARE,

BLANTON DUNCAN, Pres't.
THOS. R. SHARP, Gen'l Sup't.

We beg leave to call the attention of the public to this wonderful Steam Engine, now on exhibition at the

Avalanche Office, 22 Jefferson Street,

Which is cheaper, lighter, less intricate, occupies less space, consumes less fuel than any other engine, and is superior in every other way, it being in fact a double cut-off engine, without the friction of a double set of valves with their multiform attachments, and for its superior merits was

AWARDED THE GOLD MEDAL

At the Maryland Institute Fair, in October, 1866, over all other engines. This invention, therefore, forms the most radical and entire change in steam engines which has occurred since the days of Watts, being durable, accurate, and economical in operation and space beyond all comparison with the past, and at far less original cost than ever before attained. All orders will be promptly filled by

GALLAWAY, HAMPTON & CO.,

CROPS.

MISSISSIPPI.

The Vidette says that the farmers of Choctaw county have made a fine start with their crops.

The Oxford Falcon says the late excessive rains seriously impaired the prospects of the cotton crop.

The prospects of the crops in Lee county are promising. The cotton, though small, is growing fast. The corn is looking better than usual.

The Chronicle of the 1st says that the region about Kosciusko has suffered from over heavy rains, which have washed up the corn, et cetera.

The Canton Mail of the 5th says: "Under the influence of the beautiful weather which we have been having for about a week our famers' faces are growing as much shorter as their cotton and corn are growing rapidly taller."

The Canton Citizen of same date says: "Just now the crops are doing very well, and if we can only have favorable seasons from now until the 1st of July, we shall be 'out of the woods' as to the crops. Laus Deo!"

A letter from Hazelhurst, Copiah county, Mississippi, dated the 31st ultimo, states that owing to the cold nights and mornings, the prospects for both corn and cotton in that region is, if possible, more discouraging than last year.

The Brookhaven Southern Journal says: From all we can learn, (and we have conversed with many of late) the prospects for a good crop of both cotton and corn in this and adjoining counties are very encouraging.

The last Coahomian says: The worm is devastating everything in the bottom this year—whole fields of corn and cotton are swept away in a few days.

The Lexington Advertiser, speaking of the crops in Holmes county, says: It has been raining in this section for the last two weeks. Farmers are in the grass, but all report their corn crops as very promising.

The West Point (North Mississippi) Sunny South says: "The prospects for a large yield of corn are very flattering. The wheat has not yet been injured by rust, and we may hope for an average yield. Many fields of cotton have been plowed up and corn planted instead.

Our farmers, says the Water Valley Courier, are very much encouraged at the prospect of a good yield of both corn and cotton, in this section of country. The corn is looking fine and the stand good. There will be no failure in the wheat crop. Cotton is doing well.

Colonel Dickinson Topp, of Holly Springs, Mississippi, says the crop prospects in that region are very encouraging. The proportion of corn planted this year is much larger than last, and it promises a fine yield.

The Aberdeen Examiner of the 9th says: From planters in the prairies and from the east side of the river, we have the gratifying assurance that the prospects for a large corn and cotton crop was never better. Cotton, particularly is represented as being unusually promising.

TENNESSEE.

A correspondent of the Banner, writing from Pulaski, says the wheat everywhere looks fine, and Marshall county will produce an abundant supply.

Captain George S. Buble, who has been taking a trip through upper East Tennessee, informs the Chattanooga Union that the wheat there is looking very fine.

The Dyersburg State Gazette, in speaking of the crops, says: We hear unfavorable reports from every part of the country about crops of all kinds.

The McMinnville New Era says: "The wheat and oat crop of our county are still looking fine. From the upper counties we have intelligence that the prospect for the cereals are very flattering."

The same paper of date 8th instant, says: "The late ugly weather has so seriously damaged the cotton in this section that many of our planters have plowed it up and planted corn."

A Cannon county correspondent of the Nashville Banner, says: "Our present crop prospects in this county are good. A bountiful wheat crop is now considered almost certain. Corn, under the recent frequent showers and warm weather, is growing rapidly."

The Paris Intelligencer says: "We hear unfavorable reports from every part of the county about crops of all kinds. The wheat, which was very promising a short time ago, has taken the rust and is threatened with the scab; the recent cold and cloudy weather has given cotton 'a big set back,' while heavy, soaking rains, with an occasional hot glare of sunshine, has caused the weeds to run away with the corn."

The Cleveland Banner of the 16th says: "The wheat crop thus far has not been injured by the rust, and the prospect for a heavy crop has never been equaled in this country. Many fields, in the course of ten days, will be ready for harvesting. The seasons continue fine for the corn crop—not being too wet or too dry. The grass crop is good. The oat crop will be short."

ALABAMA.

The Selma, Alabama, Times says: "From all parts of the country we are in receipt of the most favorable news concerning the crops, especially wheat.

The Huntsville Independent of Saturday says the first harvest of wheat we have heard of in this section commenced yesterday on the farm of Major Donegan, south of the city. The grain is reported to be very fine, heavy and free from rust. The crops of corn and wheat in the county promise well. There is rust in some of the wheat fields, but it is confined to the blades, and it is hoped will not reach the stalk before the grain is ripe, which will be in a few days now. The cotton looks very sorry, and had not commenced growing until within a week or ten days. We did not see any stalks with over six leaves. There is but a small crop in cultivation, however, the efforts of the farmers being directed to the production of corn. This latter, though small, look unusually well, the stalks being large, and the color good.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Minnesota is expected to yield 15,000,000 bushels of wheat this year.

A dispatch from Charleston, S. C., dated the 8th, says planters report that the recent heavy rains have seriously injured the cotton crop.

Accounts of the tobacco crop in North Carolina are not flattering.

The grasshopper scare is again revived in Kansas and Missouri, and farmers report that the wheat and hemp are suffering severely from this plague.

A North Carolina paper says the wheat crop in that State is unprecedentedly fine, and if no accident happens to it, the yield will be better than for years.

The Pennsylvania papers concur in the opinion that the coming wheat crop will probably be the largest ever harvested in that State.

The planters of the eastern counties of North Carolina have failed to get a stand of cotton, and many of them are now ploughing up their cotton fields and planting corn.

A subscriber in Texas writes under date of the 5th to the Macon Telegraph that the corn crop of that section is most promising, most of it being knee high at that time, and growing off finely.

The New York Herald says advices from Coweta and adjoining counties, report the wheat crop never more promising. Rust or red mould has appeared on the blade in some localities, but to no serious extent.

In Dade county, Georgia, they have already commenced harvesting, and in Central Georgia, we learn from the Rome Courier, the prospect of a good wheat crop is unabated, and is, in fact, now almost certain.

The San Francisco Bulletin says it is conceded that this year's harvest will be the most abundant ever known in California.

The reports from England are favorable, and according to the latest advices from France the weather continues fine, and the accounts from the departments respecting the crops are most satisfactory.

A letter from Baker county, Georgia, to the Macon Telegraph, says: "Our crops are excellent. Cotton is growing finely. We have had refreshing rains during the last four or five days, which were greatly needed. Many farmers, I learn, are out of provisions for man and beast. I fear that some will lose their crops for want of it."

The Griffin Star says: "The farmers are now ready to harvest their wheat crops, and we do no not hesitate to say that they are better in this section of the State than they have been for ten years past. Starvation stared our people in the face, but the abundant wheat harvest will save them from suffering, and encourage them to battle on for self-independence."

A dispatch from New York dated the 5th says: Crop accounts continue to be favorable from all points, and the harvest promises to be earlier than was generally expected. New ripe wheat, from Georgia, was on exhibition at the New York Produce Exchange yesterday. It was cut last week. In some sections of New Jersey the farmers are already harvesting rye, which it was thought would be late."

The Lynchburg (Va.) News says: From Pittsylvania we learn that many gentlemen are setting out their tobacco. One gentleman has planted one hundred and fifty thousand hills, and others nearly an equal number. We are told of three large planters who will cultivate, this season, two million five hundred thousand plants.

The Tensas (La.) Gazette of the 25th says: The planters back from the river are now all busy scraping cotton, and most of them have excellent stands. On several places there is corn up, and looking healthy. Most of the plantations close to the river are not so fortunate where it is low and swampy. The water is still on those places, and the river too high to admit the water running out through the different breaks in the levee along our front.

"Cousin Nourma," the talented correspondent of the New Orleans Picayune, writing from the Gayoso House, in this city, says: On my journey hither by rail from New Orleans, the condition and quality of the crops along the route attracted my especial attention, and a report of them will doubtless be acceptable to your readers. From Jackson to Grenada, about one-tenth of the open land is in cultivation, the greater portion of which is planted with cotton; occasionally a short stretch of corn is visible. The entire crop is a month behind the usual growth at this season, and a large portion of it looks sickly and is very much in the grass. This last feature is especially apparent in the vicinity of villages and stations, where the laborers evidently spend a considerable portion of their time loafing about drink shops. In those sections where the workmen are not subjected to the demoralizing influences of villages and their convenient seductions, the fields appear to be well attended, look clean and are in promising condition. If, however, the whole crop of cotton fails along the section just referred to, the sufferers should have no sympathy, because they have egregiously failed to do their duty as wise farmers and good citizens, in that they have not planted a proper proportion of corn. From Grenada to Memphis, a much more provident and wise policy is exhibited by the planters. The fields look thrifty, notwithstanding the drenching rains and wet, cold weather that prevailed hereabouts during the past two months. There is more corn than cotton in the ground in this region, and the stand is very good. Much of the land in the section referred to is being worked by white laborers.

The Rochester Express correspondent, writing from Albion, Orleans county, says:

"A very important decision was rendered by Justice Marvin, in the Supreme Court, in relation to National banks. He decided that a National bank is a foreign corporation, so that, whenever a citizen of this State has a claim against a National bank, at the time of issuing the summons, or at any time afterward, and before judgment, he may attach the property of said bank, and tie it up in the county. The question arose on a motion to set aside the attachment of the assets of the National Bank of Medina, made by the County Treasurer, before that bank had gone into liquidation."

A Cincinnati exchange has the following:

The Ohio National Bank is to be at once merged into the Merchants' National. Each of these institutions has a capital of $500,000, and the consolidated bank will have a capital of $1,000,000. The plan was assented to by the Department at Washington on condition that two-thirds of the stockholders should agree. At first more than one-third of the stockholders of the Ohio National objected, but the consent of enough of these to make up the two-thirds has since been obtained. There is talk, however, of an injunction, on the ground that the law gives no authority to the Secretary of the Treasury to consolidate banks. He may wind them up but cannot transfer the capital and privileges of one to another. This is a nice question. Under the consolidation the Ohio National would lose its franchise. Could the Secretary of the Treasury, in such a case, legally increase the capital and circulation of the Merchants' National to the extent of the capital and circulation surrendered by the Ohio National?

ASTROLOGY.

THE WORLD ASTONISHED

At the wonderful revelations made by the great Astrologist

Madame H. A. PERRIGO.

SHE reveals secrets no mortal ever knew. She restores to happiness those who, from doleful events, catastrophes, crosses in love, loss of relations and friends, loss of money, etc., have become despondent. She brings together those long separated, gives information concerning absent friends or lovers, restores lost or stolen property, tells you the business you are best qualified to pursue and in what you will be most successful, causes speedy marriages and tells you the very day you will marry, gives you the name, likeness and characteristics of the person. She reads your very thoughts, and by her almost supernatural powers unveils the dark and hidden mysteries of the future. From the stars we see in the firmament—the malefic stars that overcome or predominate in the configuration—from the aspects and positions of the planets and the fixed stars in the heavens at the time of birth, she deduces the future destiny of man. Fail not to consult the greatest Astrologist on earth. It costs you but a trifle, and you may never again have so favorable an opportunity. Consultation fee, with likeness and all desired information, $1. Parties living at a distance can consult the Madame by mail with equal safety and satisfaction to themselves, as if in person. A full and explicit chart, written out, with all inquiries answered and likeness inclosed, sent by mail on receipt of price above mentioned. The strictest secrecy will be maintained, and all correspondence returned or destroyed. References of the highest order furnished those desiring them. Write plainly the day of the month and year in which you were born, inclosing a small lock of hair. Address, MADAME H. A. PERRIGO, Postoffice Drawer 293, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE CHINGARORA

ANTI-NERVOUS

SMOKING TOBACCO

THE CHINGARORA TOBACCO grows from the rich soil of the "ORIENT," and is possessed of a peculiarly delicious flavor entirely unknown to the tobaccos of all other climes. But its unprecedented popularity has sprung from the fact of the entire absence of that deadly poison Nicotin, which permeates every other tobacco, and which is the cause of the dyspepsia, nervousness, palpitation, etc., which most invariably follow the indulgence of the pipe and cigar. At the recent analization of tobacco from all parts of the world, at the Academy of Sciences, in Paris, the renowned Chemist, M. Lamoureaux, declared that the Turkish and the purest Havana tobacco contained fully eight per cent., and the CHINGARORA did not contain one discoverable particle of that deadly poison, a drop of which, extracted, will destroy life.

Our Agent at Bombay has shipped us large quantities of the CHINGARORA during the past two years, and although we have been pressed to supply the demand for this delicious luxury to the veteran smoker, yet we are now prepared to offer it in unlimited quantities, at a price much lower than some American tobaccos of a far inferior quality.

A connoisseur has but to smoke the American tobacco and cigars which are invariably chemically flavored, to be disgusted with the unnatural taste, which leaves a nauseous, unhealthy coating in the mouth, and in time seldom fails to shatter the nervous system.

The natives of the "ORIENT" smoke the CHINGARORA from morn till night, from youth to age, and are happily unconscious of the wild, deadening fire which courses through the veins of the inhaler of the fumes of tobacco containing Nicotin.

We invite every lover of the weed to try the CHINGARORA, and guarantee unprecedented pleasure in its delicious flavor. SOLD EVERYWHERE.
